The Waverly

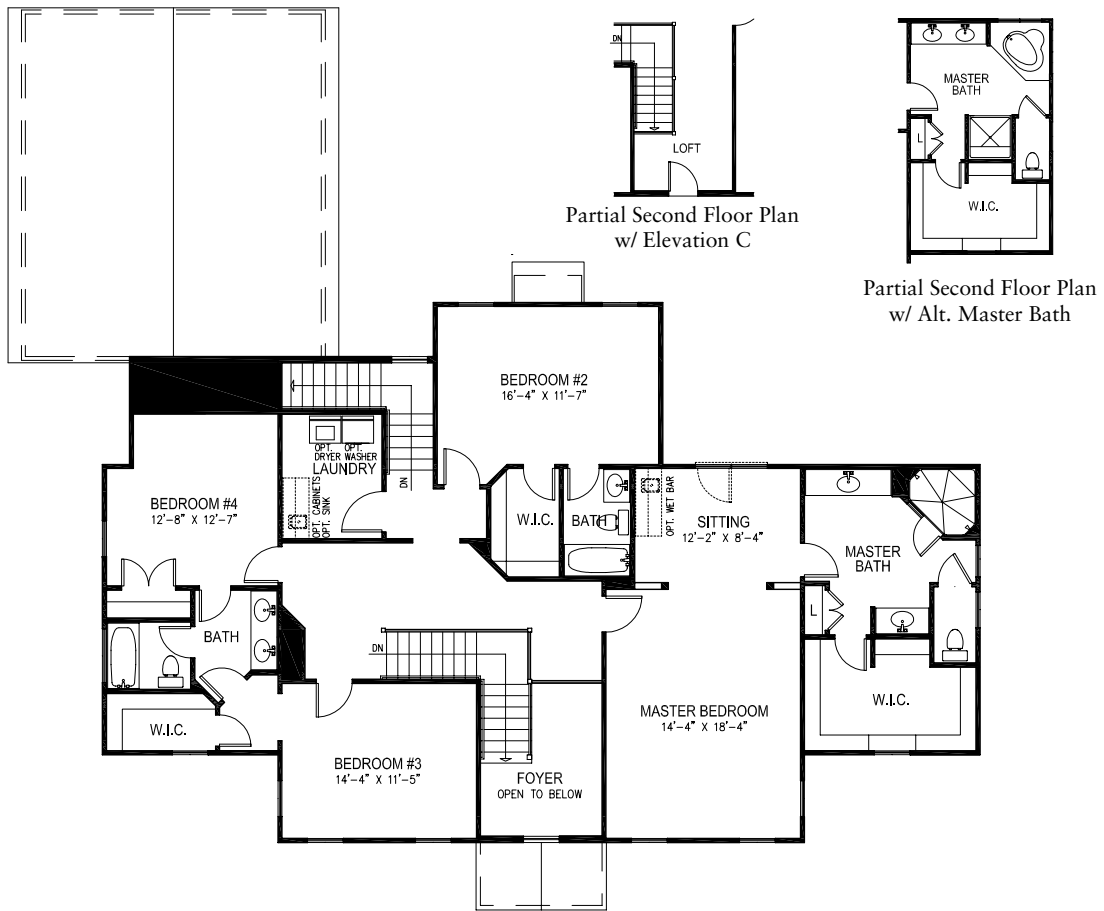

This classic design with its timeless appeal exemplifies our colonial style. The foyer draws the eye into the family room with the fireplace as the focal point. The open floor plan allows company to flow from one area to another. A gourmet kitchen faces outward into the family room for constant contact with activities. The two staircases offer easy access to the second floor area. The owners suite is complete with sitting area for morning coffee and over sized bath. The princess bedroom has a walk-in closet and private bath. The two other bedrooms share a bath and with extensive closet space for each.
